July/August 2023
Carol Rubin, at 101 years of age, has stepped down as President of the Friends of the Public Library. She has been president since the mid 1980s. The organization founded in 1970, is a group of dedicated volunteers who raise money to benefit the Library. Under Carol’s leadership, the Friends have raised thousands of dollars for library programming such as movies, museum passes, enhanced collections, equipment and other items not included in the budget. She has worked tirelessly to strengthen and support the Library for more than 25 years and at this point in time plans to devote her energy to helping another organization, the Glen Cove Senior Center. No one can deny that Carol Rubin is truly inspirational!

Carol and her husband Morton moved to Glen Cove in 1957 where they raised their three children, Emily, Richard and Eric. Always a strong advocate of public education, Carol taught in the North Shore School District for 23 years. Morton, her husband of 62 years, was also active in community affairs until he passed away in 2005.

In honor of Carol’s years of dedication, service and leadership, the Friends of the Glen Cove Public Library have established the Carol Rubin Award to be given to a graduating Glen Cove High School senior to help with college expenses.

Congratulations to Kate Csillag who was elected as the new President of the Friends of the Glen Cove Public Library.

The Friends of the Glen Cove Public Library is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to supporting the activities and mission of the Glen Cove Public Library. Please join the Friends of the Glen Cove Public Library and learn how you can become a Friend, too. Click here to join.

Thank you ☺️

FAMILY & COMMUNITY ARCHIVES DAY

Monday, August 14, 2023

Gather your photographs, postcards, letters, certificates, brochures and programs that tell stories about Glen Cove. Bring up to ten items (maximum size: 11” x 17”), and we will scan them. You can also contribute to the public record of our community by giving the Glen Cove Public Library permission to share the scans of your original documents in our archival room or on our online archive. You can either donate your materials to the Glen Cove Public Library or keep them for yourself.

Materials that will be accepted: photographs, publications, organizational records, personal papers, oral histories, and artifacts.

DATABASE SPOTLIGHT

VetNow

Are you finishing your military career and not sure what to do next? VetNow is an all-in-one suite of services designed for a wide range of veteran needs. It includes help updating a resume for civilian life, navigating the VA system, or seeking local resources and support for veterans and their families. Users may access live, on-demand assistance from expert Job Coaches or Veteran Navigators. Access it today for free at the Glen Cove Public Library. Click here.
