- Book sale dates are set for September 24th to 26th, 2026 with donations accepted on September 19th and 20th.

VII. Old Business

- Sunday Snow Closings: The memorandum of agreement has been executed and all employee payments are complete, settling the matter.
- Summer Reading Programs: Youth services programs are seeing strong attendance for all age groups. The library is hosting 16 visits from city agencies like Glen Cove EOC. The adult summer reading program's new raffle ticket system has been very popular.

VIII. New Business

- Organizational Meeting: The appointment of a Vice President was postponed until the next meeting at Michael Maher request.
- Library Mission Statement for Website: A draft mission statement was created and presented for a board vote, as the library previously had no formal mission.
- State Aid Application for Library Construction (Lighting and Ceiling Upgrades):
 - The board is proceeding with a state aid application for a $350,000 lighting and ceiling project.
 - The library's lease ends in 2027, but City Hall will provide a letter confirming building control for ten additional years.
 - Applications are due to NLS by August 21st. Signatures have been obtained.
 - Next steps involve developing the project scope and initiating a bid process.
- Resource Sharing Policy:
 - A new direct access plan from the Nassau Library System was presented for review.
 - The plan is due September 21st, 2026, and the board can vote on it at the September 15th meeting.
 - A virtual information session for trustees will be held on August 19th, 2026.

- Two-Year Strategic Plan:

- A basic two-year strategic plan, required for the New York State annual report, was presented and approved.
- A committee will be formed for a more comprehensive, longer-term plan involving a public survey in the future. Motion to approve.

- Building Front Engraved Lettering Visibility: A suggestion to paint the stone engraving for better visibility was discussed. Opinions were mixed due to concerns about maintenance and architectural integrity. Alternatives like cleaning or shadowing were proposed, but no decision was reached.
- Voter Outreach and Election Turnout: Low voter turnout for library elections was discussed. The idea of coordinating with school board elections to increase participation was raised, but no decision was made.
- Approval to pay August invoices: A motion to pay August invoices was made by Antonia Petrash. Seconded by Joanne Yee. All in favor.
